Compassion

Helping those who are hurting.

I WILL…

Notice when others are hurting.

Stop to help.

Take time to listen.

Do what I can.

Be kind, regardless of differences.

Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you. (Ephesians 4:32)

"Reality Therapy"

by Dr. J.D. Keene

Intervention Techniques to Manage Behavior

Regardless of what led to his/her actions the child is responsible for what they do.

1. They did it voluntarily
2. There were better possibilities open
3. Face lack of responsibility
4. This is not the way they have to be
5. Communication- we think they can do better at expectations
6. Push toward individual responsibility to themselves, not others
7. Unhappiness is the result of irresponsibility
8. Focus on the solution now, not the problem
9. Accept them at your level not theirs, no condescending attitude
10. Never assume at any time they know all the rules, ask for clarification
11. Ask if they are willing to stay out of future trouble
12. Inquire about responsible examples to follow
13. Counselor's role is not to provide happiness, but expect responsibility
14. Never ask "why" --ask "what's going on" requires responsibility answers

"But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; They will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint." Isaiah 40:31
