What really is a psalm?

We think of psalms as worshipful pieces of scripture, written to our Creator and God. The book of Psalms is full of joyous poems and praise-filled songs that are easily transferred into worship. However, Psalm is also full of different types of psalms, ones that do not fit so easily into our definition of worship.

In our lives, there will be trials, pains, and fears that seem to overcome us. The psalmists of the Old Testament were not afraid to take these feelings to God. They cried out in the midst of their suffering, often asking God the big question: WHY? Sometimes we think that crying out to God and telling him our true thoughts and innermost feelings is too much. Perhaps we think that it is wrong to tell God how we really feel. However, God can handle our questions. He can handle our suffering, our tears, our shouts. God is a BIG GOD! He stands ready with open arms to embrace our every emotion.

The fifth-grade class has been exploring the Psalms and God's creation. For one of our Bible lessons, students were tasked to write their own psalms. The following students have volunteered to share their psalms with you.

*Lord so peaceful but Mighty
Your word is living wisdom
Watching me wherever I go
Your mercy flows
-Elena Cuny*

*God you have created
Every human on this earth
Yet you still love them
Despite of their sin
-Bryan Wilson*

*Lord God,
You have formed the waters, waves,
The beauty of the ocean
We see your power in the waves,
And your peace on the shore.
You are our living water.
We will never thirst.
-Fifth Grade Class*

*Lord God
I see your strength in waters blue
And your power in the waves
I can see your glory in life
And your love in me
-Lily Hoff*

*Lord your creation is beautiful
The mountains are huge
And the animals that fly, crawl,
and walk
Your creation is perfect
-Tristan Nelson*

Mrs. Stark

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; They will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. -- Isaiah 40:31
