Courage

Overcoming fear so I can do what is right.

I WILL ...

Know the truth.

Get help when I am afraid.

Do what is right.

Be willing to stand alone.

Help those who are bullied or abused.

“I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart!

I have overcome the world.” (John 16:33)

Wow it is hard to believe that we have come so far into this school year, we are almost through the second trimester. Time flies when you are having fun, I’ve heard it said.

We are far enough into January to do an evaluation of whether or not you have fallen off the wagon, on your new year’s resolutions. How are you doing? Statistics show that over 93% of all resolutions don’t get carried through within the year they are made.

Endurance, perseverance, and patience are the keys to fulfilling God’s plan for our lives according to the Bible.

In Matthews Gospel Chapter 10 verse 22, it tells us that in reference to, it is the one who endures to the end will be saved. And James says in chapter 1:4, “And let endurance have its perfect result, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.

During this time of year, we all need endurance to keep going toward the end of the current school year. How? A long obedience in the same direction is the key to endurance, keep moving forward keeping your eyes on Jesus, running the race set before us, (Hebrews 12:1-2).

Also, one needs perseverance to get up each day and get to school, take the circumstances that are always changes each day, and plow through them. Whether it is a quiz, test, or circumstance with people that we have really no control over, remember, “Trust in the Lord with all your heart, lean not on your own understanding, in all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.” (Proverbs 3:5-6)

In the big scheme of things, patience trumps both endurance and perseverance, because without patience, none of it will work. Patience is like the mortar that holds a brick wall together. Without it all the bricks will be loose, and crumble easily when some pressure pushes on it. Fear, criticism, discouragements, and lack of motivation can cause one to become terribly impatient at times. Remember that fear is like a dark room where negatives develop. Criticism is a part of life, everyone has an opinion, and I only have to respond to it if it is true. (continued on back...)

“But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; They will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.” Isaiah 40:31

(Continued from Page 1...) And with discouragement and lack of motivation, they stem from having no real objectives or goals outside myself, and my daily routines to help me be successful.

Set a goal to finish this year with all the endurance you can muster up, persevere through the daily humdrums of responsibilities, and be patient when wronged, and forgive others their trespasses, as God's forgives us daily. Then at the end of the school year you can look back and sense the success, which will motivate you to continue on!

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

(Romans 12:2)
