Attentiveness

Showing the worth of a person or task by giving my undivided concentration.

I Will...

Look at people when they speak to me.

Ask questions if I don't understand.

Sit or stand up straight.

Not draw attention to myself.

Not be distracted by others.

Proverbs 2:2 Making your ear attentive to wisdom and inclining your heart to understanding.

Bishop's Pumpkin Farm

Sixty-plus kindergarten and first grade students, their parents and grandparents took our annual class trip to Bishop's Pumpkin Farm last week, and as usual we had a blast! Under lovely, seventy-degree skies, we enjoyed a wonderful morning on the farm. First, it was off to see the farm animals. The students enjoyed seeing and petting the donkeys, sheep, goats, llama, enormous hogs, mama pigs with adorable little piglets, bulls, chickens, and turkeys. Next, we boarded the train for a trip around the farm—through the tunnel (and oh, how those kids loved hearing themselves scream in that tunnel!!!), past pretend buildings, horses, cows, an interesting assortment of old farm machinery, and lots of giant Cinderella pumpkins. Then it was off to the races—pig races, that is! Mother Goose talked about the importance of nutrition, and how the three little pigs—and even the "Big, Bad Wolf," who we discovered was not so bad after all!—learned to eat their healthy foods, especially fruits and vegetables. Then Lenny, Benny and Penny did actually "race" around the track as we rooted them on! Finally, we enjoyed a prickly, hay-filled wagon ride out to the pumpkin patch to pick our pumpkins—always the highlight of our day. The students observed many an orange pumpkin flower, lots of baby green pumpkins just beginning to grow, vines and leaves spread out for miles and miles, and tons of itsy-bitsy, medium-sized and big pumpkins to choose from. Some kids were so excited to pick out little pumpkins no bigger than their hand, while others found pumpkins that were almost as big as they were! (Well, not really!) Then it was back on the hay wagon to enjoy lunch and fresh-pressed apple cider—so delicious—before heading home. It was another memorable time of learning and fun at Bishop's Pumpkin Farm!

A big thank you goes to those of you that are earnestly striving to help us keep to our school dress code.

We still need assistance in a couple of areas:

- Polo and white shirts must have a collar and contain no embellishments for example: ruffles or lace.
- No tight pants on the hips or thighs.

Thank you again for helping us enforce our standards.

Thank you!
