Second Graders were dazzled with a unique presentation of the classic story of The Ugly Duckling at Chico State Theater. Lightwire Theater actors lined with electroluminescent wire used puppetry, technology and dance to bring a classic tale to the modern stage in an unforgettable theatrical experience.

The kids greatly enjoyed this performance. Afterwards we compared the original story with this modern version and found that even though there were many differences, the same moral was central to both: We should not judge a person by outward appearance.

In fact, in the Bible 1 Samuel 16:7 says, The Lord does not look at the things people look at. People look at the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart. We also applied it to one of our class rules to respect others as image bearers of God.

For in Genesis 1:27 it says,
*So God created mankind in his own image,
in the image of God he created them;
male and female he created them.*

We need to remember that everyone is made in God's image. That they have been created for a purpose, to do good works that he already prepared for us. We all have something to give, and thankfully we are not all the same. We need to celebrate what makes each person unique. To look at their heart and love all people as God has commanded us to do. The ugly duckling in both stories found what he was created to do and thrived. As parents and teachers we need to help our children find their strengths and their purpose that God created them for. Maybe it's to make people laugh, or to make beautiful music or do research and discover a cure for sickness. Pray for God to help you to encourage your children to be who God created them to be. For they are fearfully and wonderfully made in God's image.
