Gratefulness

Showing appreciation for what I have.

I will...

Appreciate the people in my life.

Say "please" and "thank you."

Enjoy what I have instead of complaining about what I don't have.

Take care of my belongings.

Write thank you notes.

I have learned the secret of being content in any and every situation, whether well fed or hungry, whether living in plenty or in want. (Phil 4:12 NIV)

Happy November!

November is the month of Thanksgiving. We have plenty to be thankful for.

First and foremost, we have to be thankful for our salvation. Jesus Christ died on the cross to pay for our sins, to remove from us that ultimate punishment, separation from God. He rose again on the third day to prove that His death was enough. For that, we are eternally thankful. We should be thanking Him for that every day.

Second, He didn't save us to leave us alone. He sent His Holy Spirit to dwell inside of us, that we wouldn't ever be alone. We need to be thankful for that every day too.

He also gave us all family. Whether we spend time with our spouses, parents, children or siblings, we can and should be thankful for our family.

He also gave us church family, to pick up where real family can't. He sent fathers to the fatherless, mothers to the motherless, brothers and sisters so that everyone can be a part of God's family. Be thankful for your church family. If you don't have a church family, get one. Start attending church somewhere. Make sure they teach from the Word of God. Open up your heart to the people. Help out where you can.

He also gave us our jobs and this school. We can be thankful for being a part of something everyday, whether it's a classroom or a business.

And on top of all that, God gave us stuff! Be thankful for your house or car or clothes or anything else that you use everyday. Thank God for it and use it for His glory.

If you can't thank God for it, it's sin. Be thankful. Thank God.

VETERAN'S DAY CHAPEL

Please invite family members who have served, or are serving, in our military forces for a special Veteran's Day Chapel.

Nov. 6, 2015 @ 8:45 a.m.

Middletown Christian School families were hit hard by the Valley Fire. 5 families lost their homes. We have been dedicating our chapel offerings for the Month of October to help these hurting families and this Friday will be the last offering we will be collecting for them. Please prayerfully consider a love offering to help allow these families to stay at the school while rebuilding their homes and lives.
