Self-Control

To check; to restrain; to govern ones tongue, deeds and actions. Having instant obedience to the Holy Spirit, developed through outward discipline.

But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control ...
(Gal 5:22-23)

HOW TO CONSIDER IT ALL JOY!

Transitions and Trials are two of our least favorite things to do as we live each day, but they are a necessary part of growth, both in the physical realm as well as the Spiritual. God has orchestrated both for an impact in our lives, and they sometimes leave us wondering why does your faithful servant need them?

Pearls are a product of pain, for some unknown reason, the shell of the oyster gets pierced and an alien substance, a grain of sand slips inside. On the entry of that foreign irritant, all the resources within the tiny sensitive oyster rush to the spot and begin to release healing fluids that otherwise would have remained dormant. By and by the irritant is covered and the wound is healed by a pearl. No other gem has so fascinating a history. It is the symbol of stress, a healed wound.... A precious tiny jewel conceived through irritation, born of adversity, nursed by adjustments to inconveniences. Had there been no wounding, no irritation, no interruption, there would have been no pearl. No wonder our Heavenly Home has pearly gates....

Those who go through them are the ones who have been wounded, bruised, and have responded to trials and transitions, from the sting of irritations with the pearl of adjustment. James 1:2-4

“Blessed are the flexible for they shall not be broken”
