Cat Tales- Enthusiasm

Look for the "I wills" in this story.

There were two cats, and they weren't just any ordinary cats. They worked for the Christian Undercover Cats Org. known as the C.U.C.O. The oldest was orange with a pink nose and golden eyes. His name was Scruffy. The youngest was black with white paws, white belly, and a white moustache. His name was Mr. Moustache. Scruffy was training Mr. Moustache how to be a secret spy cat.

After their "pets", (we would say owners) left the house, they had a secret meeting.

"Mr. Mustache, it is time to begin your training. As cats, humans think all we do is sleep, play, and receive snuggles from them. But as you know we are really undercover agents," said Scruffy.

"Do we get to fight bad guys with our ninja training? Hi-yah!" shouted Mr. Moustache.

"No, we're going to start with helping our pet to have more enthusiasm," said Scruffy.

Mr. Mustache asked, "How, meow, do we do that?"

Scruffy replied, "We will energize our pets by playing with them, then we will sit on their laps, which almost always makes them smile, and if that doesn't work, we will turn on our purring power which never fails."

Mr. Moustache asked, "What is so important about enthusiasm?"

"Enthusiasm gives hope to those who are hopeless. One enthusiastic human can bring excitement and happiness to others, it's contagious! With enthusiastic humans, amazing things can happen. And it all started with two C.U.C.O. trained agents!" Scruffy said excitedly.

Mr. Moustache looked out of the window and said, "Those humans have no idea how much we do for them, do they?"

"Not many" sighed Scruffy.

DANGER!

Please, remember when picking up or dropping off your children that the parking lot is a one way traffic zone. Please complete the circuit for the safety of the children!

A Prayer to help us stay connected...

Lord God, You have loved me with an everlasting love. You have demonstrated love to me in ways that I could never hope to repay. I praise and honor You for Your incredible patience and Your jealous tenacity that keeps You pursuing and forgiving me. Help me honor Your willingness to love me by loving others with a "no matter what" commitment to them. Equip me to become one of Your means of showing how deep, wide, boundless, and irrepressible Your love truly is. In Jesus' name, amen.
