Honesty

Being truthful in what I say and do

I Will...

Tell the truth

Play by the rules

Not exaggerate the facts

Admit when I'm wrong

Not take things that don't belong to me.

"Rather, speaking the truth in Love, we are to grow up in every way into Him who is the head, into Christ."

Ephesians 4:15

Intentional Love

Valentine's Day always makes me think of the famous Love chapter in Corinthians. Paul describes to us the uselessness of words without love: "that I am a noisy gong or clanging symbol." (Having children, we all know how noisy that can be!)

He goes on to tell us how empty our actions are without love. We can be brilliant, kind, funny, and amazing on so many levels, but if we don't have love it means nothing. NOTHING!

What a tough pill to swallow. No matter how much money we make, who we help, what we build, what we share, what we do in any area of our life, if we are not living it out with love, it is empty. Wow. That just floors me.

So often I catch myself simply going through the motions, making sure things are done "just so." In my attention to external detail, my heart can become numb or hard while I am busy trying to "function at full capacity." It is so easy to get caught up in the chores of the day and forget to align our hearts with the One who has given us this day.

I challenge you to remember the characteristics of Love. It is patient and kind. Love does not brag or become prideful or act out in rudeness. It doesn't like to see others doing wrong, doesn't enjoy their mistakes, but "rejoices" in the truth. My favorite part is verse 8: Love never ends. Even when everything we know has passed away, love will still exist, because our God is Love.

I Corinthians 13:13 "So now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; but the Greatest of these is Love"

Walk this day with Intentional Love,

Mrs. Kroll

But those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; They will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint. -- Isaiah 40:31
